

The download – as of October 2009

We use a free version of Box.net. This stores all the files for the printed and recorded material of the six Modules of The NEST for free. There are a lot of files and the complete download does take time. So give yourself plenty of time and try to decide what Module you need first. Our advice is to check whether you need all or just some of the Modules by reviewing the syllabuses and sample units.

We store each module in its own folder; within that are further folders with the files. This free version of Box.net only allows you to download individual files. So you have to open each folder by clicking to access the files within it – you'll know when you have reached the right point(s) as the word 'download' appears beside the files.

You have to click on download and save separately for each of the files – and there are a lot of them in total (list below). These materials are free – you just need a little patience to get them!

Enjoy. Good luck. Any problems, let us know: info@thenesttrust.org.uk
If you like the materials, do add a comment on Box.net to encourage others and spread the word! Thanks.

In Modules 4, 5, and 6, each unit of materials is a separate file:

In Modules 4, 5, and 6, each recorded activity has its own track / file. This makes the recordings very easy to use in class but means a lot of files to download.

You can download in CD format or MP3. The MP3 format includes recordings of the Reading Texts in each unit; the CD format does not. There is a separate folder of Reading Text recordings.
